2012 ADVANCED COURSE in HERBAL MEDICINE for second year study

For enrollment in advanced classes students should have a basic working knowledge of herbal medicine equivalent to having completed a one-year course of study such as the Elderberry School Herbalist Training Program, with knowledge of materia medica, medicine making, physiology and therapeutic actions. The Advanced Course is intended for community herbalists who are seeking to expand their understanding of specific topics of clinical herbalism. Most Advanced classes are limited to 10 students.
